DONORA THROWS A SCARE

Down-the-River Boys Start Briskly, But Are Unable to Maintain Pace—Charleroi Gets Down to Business After Donora Assumes Lead

Buoyed and keyed to the highest pitch by probably the majority of the estimated 12,000 wildly excited fans, Charleroi High school forged its way one step nearer the coveted W. P. I. A. L. championship trophy by defeating at Page Park, Monessen yesterday forenoon the Donora eleven by a score of 14-3. This leaves four contenders, New Castle, Union High, Turtle Creek, Braddock, and Charleroi, and the first game for the Syracuse trophy can will be played between Charleroi and New Castle High on Saturday afternoon, December 6.

The Charleroi aggregation, after being outplayed and outclassed in the first half, came back into the fray, and playing like "demons," ran over the Donora lads "rough-shod" for two tallies and a victory before the whistle ended their brilliant comeback.

Before the immense crowd as noted, the two elevens scamped out onto the field, one imbued with a resolve to avenge the defeat of last year, and the other, just as determined to repeat their victory of last year; the result was a hard-fought battle that immensely pleased the enthusiastic throng.

Charleroi enthusiasm was dampened to an extent on the first kickoff, when Schmitt scampered to the 40-yard line before Wildman, playing safety, stopped him with a cool tackle. Forcing the Charleroi lads to wade back to their own 30 yard line, Martak attempted a drop-kick that went short. Donora took Crabbs' kick for safety on Charleroi's 43-yard line, from where Martak booted another wild one. His teammates were unable to gain first down through the Red and Black defense.

In the second quarter, Schmidt, by a clever bit of broken field running, lugged up 50 yards for Donora, placing the oval on Charleroi's 18-yard line. After three unsuccessful line hicks, Phillips booted a placement high over the post for Donora's only score. The remainder of the quarter was hotly contested; Donora, however, gaining a slight advantage.

If the Red and Black appeared to be outclassed in the first half, it was certainly made up for with plenty to spare by their demon-like playing, clawing through the dazed Donoras for one first down after another, resulting in two touchdowns that completely took the wind out of the down-the-river gridders. Dize Crytzer started the first spectacular touchdown march with a pretty 30-yard and

MONONGAHELA VALLEY CHAMPIONS WILL MEET NEW CASTLE DECEMBER 6

Charleroi High School and New Castle High School will meet in the elimination series on Saturday afternoon, December 6. The winner of this contest will meet the winner of the Turtle Creek-Braddock game to be played tomorrow.

Just where this game will be played is not yet established. Officials of the two schools meet in Pittsburgh tomorrow for the purpose of arranging details and securing a field that will be satisfactory to both teams. An effort will be made to secure the Carnegie Tech bowl for the struggle. In case this is successful it will mean that a large number of fans of both New Castle and Charleroi will be able to attend as the field is located about half way between the two towns.

gallop on the kickoff. Captain O'Brien added 20 more to this skirting the left end, and a few more gains by Paterline and Crabbs brought the oval to Donora's 10-yard line. Fighting with their backs to the wall, Donora held for two downs, but the third down found the line plunging. Paterline plaring the oval on the right side of the barrier. Crabbs kicked the extra point.

Donora received the next kickoff, but was forced to kick for safety, the ball landing out of bounds on their own 43. This inaugurated another march for the second tally for Charleroi, Paterline taking it over. Crabbs and O'Brien carrying the leather up to the shadows by a series of consistent gains through tackle. The extra point was kicked by Crabbs.

The fourth quarter, also scoreless, found the Stepanian prodigies stepping off gains as usual, and Donora seeing victory hopelessly gone, kicked for safety at short intervals.

For the Charleroi eleven, O'Brien, Paterline, Crytzer and Crabbs all played splendid football, while the line after the first half, held as of old, Wildman's tackling also showing up well for the Charleroi eleven.

For Donora, Schmitt's broken field running, and Mortak's kicking, along with the general good tackling ability of the whole team, were Donora's chief assets. The lineup: CHARLEROI—14. DONORA—3. Anthony..... LE..... Friedlander. Loughhead..... LT..... Jurik. Morgan..... LG..... Watkins. Wildman..... C..... Brooks. Cantoni..... RG..... Stump. Johns..... RT..... Phillips. Sheppard..... RE..... Hokal. O'Brien..... Q..... Morak. Crabbs..... LH..... Schmidt. Paterline..... RE..... Sarber. Crytzer..... F..... Gillingham.

Substitutions—Charleroi, Chacko for Anthony and Semoline for Loughhead; Donora, Jobs for Hokal. Touchdowns—Paterline 2. Point from touchdowns—Crabbs 2. Placement field goal—Schmidt, Donora. Referee—Baird. Umpire—Gross. Headlinesman—Evans.

DOYLE SAYS HARDING AND WIFE UNITED IN SPIRIT WORLD

London, Nov. 28.—The late President Warren G. Harding and his wife, Florence Kling Harding, undoubtedly are united in the spirit world, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, distinguished British author and spiritualist, creator of "Sherlock Holmes," declared today in an exclusive interview with the United Press.

"I think there is no doubt the late President called out to his wife while she still was on earth and actually summoned her to him and that she went," Sir Arthur said.

He added that several American presidents have been susceptible to psychic influences, "and it is conceivable that they are watching earthly affairs."

Sir Arthur cited the case of Abraham Lincoln, "the author spiritualist said, 'That is a historical fact. 'It should be recognized that psychic messages, relayed to Lincoln, were largely instrumental in winning the Civil war.'"

Conan Doyle is convinced that not only is there survival after "death" but that "vigorous, vital personalities like Lord Northcliffe" may be able to achieve and in some cases actually have achieved communication with this earth.

"Squire Whitehead died as a result of his injuries and his suit against the Railroad Company will be tried at the present term of Court.

In the suit of John Felsky against Jacob Zeidman for the death of the former's wife in an automobile collision at Eighth street, the Supreme Court has handed down an opinion in favor of Mr. Zeidman.

Interest in the Essay and Window Trimming contest continues to grow Philadelphia as the time draws near for the closing of the contest on Monday, December 1.

fortnight in which essays from the subject, "Why We Should Shop In Charleroi," may be submitted, in reality the time is short, and it is well for those taking part to "get their essays in" with as much rapidity as possible.

There is one thing that is to be impressed on those entering the contest, and that is the essay must contain 500 words or less, an essay of over 500 words will not be considered by the judges. There will be three sets of prizes awarded in the contest.

The Window Trimming contest will take place on the evening of Wednesday, December 3, at 7 o'clock, and prizes will be given in this contest, with probably nearly all the merchants of Charleroi participating.

PHONE DIRECTORY AN IMPROVEMENT OVER PRIOR ISSUES

Bigger and better type is a feature of the new Bell Telephone directory, delivery of which started December 26. The type is a new creation, especially designed for telephone directories. The letters and figures are much more open than the ordinary type and this increases the ease with which names and numbers may be read.

"Anything which helps the telephone user to get the right number quickly, helps the telephone service," according to Manager Hoffman. "The telephone engineers are constantly studying the directory problem with a view to getting out the most practical and most useful book possible at an economical cost. This new Monongahela Valley directory is the last word in telephone books."

"In addition to the change of style, there are many changed numbers in the new directory. The borough is growing and new telephones are being added. People are moving, causing a number of changes. It is also necessary to make rearrangements in the telephone plant, which necessitates changing numbers. It is never safe to trust to memory after a new telephone directory is issued. It is always best to consult the new issue so as to avoid delays caused by calling the wrong number."

RECORDS SHOW TEAMS ARE EVENLY MATCHED

Official records of the football games that have been played between Charleroi and Donora since 1918 show some interesting statistics, and also show how evenly matched the two teams have been. In the seven years six games have been played between the two teams, no contest being held in 1920 on account of the Charleroi team disbanding before the date set for the game. It also shows that there are but two points difference in the scoring. Charleroi having scored 34 points to 32 for Donora. Charleroi has won two of the contests, Donora the same amount, and two have resulted in a tie score. The following table shows the scores and the years in which the games were played:

Charleroi	Year	Donora
No game	1919	No game

Fred DeMarco And Hiller & Braun Reach This Agreement—DeMarco Loses His Eyesight While In the Em-ploy of the Firm

While the accident is still the cause for general regret and sympathy for the unfortunate young man, the matter of litigation is ended when on Wednesday a verdict of $3,000 in favor of the plaintiff was taken that day by agreement in the case of Fred DeMarco of this place, against Hiller & Braun, who conduct a meat market in Fallowfield avenue, near Fourth street, the case coming before Judge James I. Brownson.

This was a suit to recover damages for the loss of the eyesight of the plaintiff on November 15, 1921, when the young man, then a boy under 16 years of age, was in the employ of the local firm.

On the date named Fred DeMarco was washing knives for the firm, when another youth picked up a gun which was loaded with bird shot and the weapon accidentally discharged. The charge entered the eyes of Fred DeMarco. The gun had been kept in the place of business of the local firm to kill rats.

The case of George Talnak, Sr., against Smith township, which was called before Judge Cummins Wednesday afternoon, is also a suit to recover damages for personal injuries. The injured person in this case is George Talnak, Jr., aged 11 years. It seems that on November 22, 1923, while on his way to school the child picked up a package containing dynamite caps, which he found at a close mile of the Greenburg-Camelsville Coal and Coke Co., onemile west Imposing were the ceremonies incident to the corner stone laying yesterday afternoon of the Russian Orthodox St. John the Baptist church, Lookout avenue.

The ceremonial was witnessed by a large concourse of the members and friends of the congregation with priests taking part: The laying of the corner stone proper was preceded by the Holy Liturgy at 10 o'clock in the Russian hall. This hall has been utilized by the congregation since the former church was destroyed by fire in December, 1923.

Labor on the new edifice will now be pushed, and it is expected that the auditorium will be completed in a short time.

Two dioceses were represented yesterday and their deans, the Very Rev. Sergius Bozelevich of the Pittsburgh diocese and the Very Rev. Joseph Stanisko of the West Brownsville diocese took active part in the ceremony. Societies from Brownsville, Kansas, and at the dedication. Mandell Has Chance

For The Title Held

By Benny Leonard

Sammy Mandell, a good-looking, possession of a title in the orthodox light, has a fine chance to be the best of the crop of young 135-pounders who are growing into contenders.

There are many more experienced and harder hitting aspirants for the class but most of them are in the trick division known as "junior welterweights," a class established by the New York commission and rather generally recognized for those who are too light for legitimate welterweight which had come into the weights.

Stribling Wins From

Fay In A 10-Round

Bout At Atlanta, Ga.

W. L. Young Stribling, "uncrowned champion" of the light heavyweights in the referee's decision in a 10-round bout with Harry Fay at Atlanta yesterday night.

Fay put up a great defensive battle and fought on almost even terms with the young Georgia boxer during the early rounds.

Stribling took advantage of the punches and wore down the Louisville "Star" with frequent stiff body punches, and was complete master in the final rounds.

Fay kept on his feet, however, until the final gong dodging many of Stribling's swings and uppercuts to the head and saving himself from a probable knockout by clinching.

his best efforts to score a victory.

The game was not devoid of excitement; neither was there a lack of good-natured enthusiasm which was taken part in by the members of both teams. Some members of the married men's team were so sincere in their efforts to win that they forgot diplomacy at times, while other members of the team took the breaks as they came so good-naturedly as to turn them into jokes both for the members of both teams and the crowd in general, and vice versa for single men.

While the game was played by men who have not played football for many years, and while there were many men on the two teams who are at the present time stars of the game, there were many features that stood out prominently on both teams on which comment passed by those of our, what we can call now, Charleroi's educated football fans, as extremely good plays. Among them were two end runs by Chuck Lowstuter of the Married Men's team, one in the first quarter for 20 yards around the end in which he threatened to cross the single men's goal had it not been for the tactical work of Wagner, who tackled him and brought him down. Again, in the third quarter the same Chuck brought himself out prominently when he made another end run completing 30 yards before he was brought down.

For the single men the most featured plays were made by Brown and Wagner when Brown tossed a forward pass to the Dutchman for a 30-yard toss, which Wagner carried for 20 yards before he was brought down by "Handy" Hancock. With these features the general line plunging of both teams was very good in the first three-quarters of the game, and principally the line plunging and the straight football played by the single men in the last quarter.

There was one thing that was noticeable in the playing of the firemen: upon several occasions they mistook their headgears for smoke guards and in the thick of the battle would pull their headgears down over their eyes and nose in an effort to keep out the mud from the shoes of the opposing players.

FIFTH ROUND

K. O. George Chaney of Baltimore scored his ninety-ninth knockout by stopping Ray Mitchell of Philadelphia in the fifth round after one minute and 53 seconds at the matinee show held yesterday at the Arena at Philadelphia.

The end came so suddenly that the big crowd hardly realized what it was all about. The punch which did the trick was a hard right to the jaw and then a left both punches landing with such force on Mitchell's jaw that the latter never moved while Referee Floyd tolled 10.

Of injuries, for immediately after the start of the game, Mook McGuire, one of the players of the single men, while in scrimmage of the two teams received an injury to his shoulder which at the time did not seem to amount to much, but after being taken to a physician and examination made it was found that his left shoulder was badly fractured. SPECIAL DAYS FOR THE SEALS

Harrisburg, Nov. 28.—Sunday, November 30, will be tuberculosis day in the churches, and Friday, December 5, tuberculosis day in the schools, according to announcement made by Dr. John M. Thomas, chairman of the 1924 Christmas Seal Committee for Pennsylvania.

These special days will be observed in connection with the seventeenth annual Christmas Seal sale in furtherance of the fight against the White Plague.

"In view of the relationship of the churches and schools to the everyday life and activities of every citizen, it is very fitting that the dangers of tuberculosis and how to avoid them be emphasized on those days," said Governor Pinchot.

Dr. Thomas pointed out that church and educational workers are interested in the physical, as well as in the intellectual, moral and spiritual well-being of the people and that this is a fine opportunity to further a great public health project.

In the churches on November 30, pastors are asked to preach on tuberculosis or a health subject, or to refer to the work; talks or exercises can be given in Sunday schools; together with the distribution of literature, showing of exhibits and health motion pictures, and prayers for the health of all. On December 5 in the schools there will be health plays, health exercises and talks on tuberculosis and health.

Tuberculosis organizations affiliated with the Pennsylvania Tuberculosis Society are in charge of arrangements in their respective counties, and will furnish literature and other material.

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lots Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wycocna, Wisconsin.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my twins were born because my sister used it and recommended it to me. I was so I could scarcely go about my daily work I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before I was confined and I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will give the praise in the future."

—Mrs. Ida GEBELTZ, Wycocna, Wis.
It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after child-birth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer.
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother both before and after child-birth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and does not contain any harmful drugs. It can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

SLAYER ASKS FOR NEW TRIAL

Motions and reasons for a new trial for Jim Scott, West Newton colored man, convicted on Nov. 20 for the shooting and killing of Police Chief George Rae of that place on the night of September 1, have been filed by Attorney Adam B. Shaffer and Patrick McKague, Scott's counsel, it was made known Wednesday morning.

The brief as filed by the defendant's counsel, is not long, and permission is requested to file additional reasons in the near future. Motion for a new trial is based on the following reasons: first, that the verdict was against the law; second, the verdict was against the charge of the court; and third, the verdict was contrary to the evidence.

It was also stated the jury in the Scott case was swayed in its feelings by the appearance of Mrs. George Rae, who occupied a seat at the counsel table and who wept several times during the course of the trial. The case will be argued in December, Attorney Shaffer said.

of Burgettstown. The caps exploded and maimed his hands.

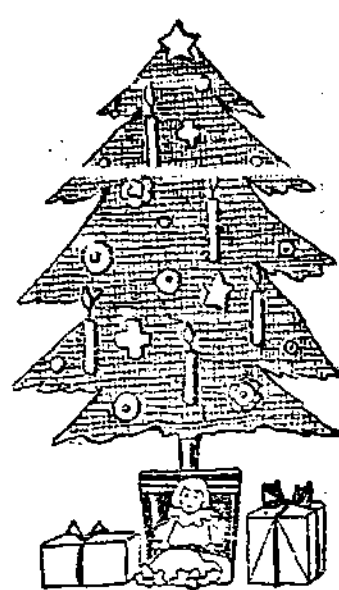

It is charged by the plaintiff that the township had been hauling slate from this pile, which was along the road and it is alleged that the package of caps was left there by employees of the defendant township.

The suit of Joe Kovach against John Dominko, which was tried before Judge James I. Brownson, comes from Fredericktown. This is a suit to recover $900 on a note given by the plaintiff to the defendant. It appears that Dominko was building a house and it is alleged that he borrowed that sum from Kovach. A verdict of $405 for the plaintiff was returned.

A verdict by agreement was taken for $150 in the case of Steve Husarik et ux, against Albert Sam of Van Voorhis. This was by agreement before the case was called.

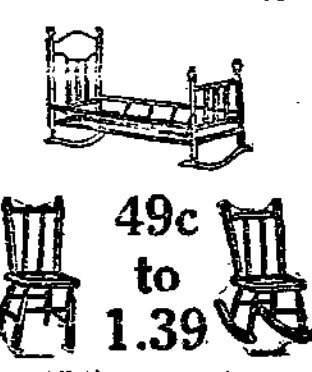

In the suit of Ellsworth E. Colvin et al, vs. J. Marr McMahan, of Charleroi, to recover for coal alleged to have been mined illegally, the jury found that Mr. McMahan had mined over the line to the extent of 810 tons and awarded damages at the rate of 50 cents a ton.

The jury also found that Mr. McMahan took the coal under the belief that he had a right to do so.

A NEGRO SCIENTIST.

The head of the department of scientific research at Tuskegee Institute, George Washington Carver, a negro, is said to have done useful work in discovering or developing new uses for several common Southern products such as the peanut and potato, and his work has received recognition to the extent of the award of the Spingarn medal. But now he has caused a flutter of astonishment and disapproval among his admirers and the scientists by announcing that he is not interested in what other books to his laboratory, and that his achievements are the result of direct revelation from heaven. In a public address in New York on November 19 he said that "his discoveries were a revelation from God," that "he had no great mind," that he "never used even a book in his laboratory," that "the moment God revealed a discovery to him the method came with the idea," and that "in half an hour after the idea was revealed to him he produced the yolk of an egg from a potato."

Obviously he is a deeply religious man and has the courage of his convictions. He will be commended for that in some quarters, but he has put himself beyond the pale from the point of view of modern scientists, all of them ignore the existence of and many of them scoff at the supernatural. Already he has been told that "men of science never talk that way," that his announcement "reveals a complete lack of the scientific spirit," that he will merely "bring ridicule upon Tuskegee and his race," and that he calls to mind Rev. John Jasper, colored, who boldly asserted from the pulpit that "the sun do move" (around the earth). He may as well look for some considerable revision of the previous scientific opinion of his work.

Twenty-four-Hour Vigilance—

More than 2,000,000 miles of underground wires must be carefully and constantly tested to insure an uninterrupted service.

Nearly a million miles of wire on poles (much of it in cables) is guarded by hundreds of men, many of whom use "flippers" more economically to cover the territory.

Inside the Bell Buildings, "central office men" are always on duty, making tests, checking up, and watching the millions of connections, every one of which must be perfect.

ETERNAL vigilance has been said to be the price of liberty. It is the price of many things worth having.

Certainly good telephone service depends on it—vigilance in the maintenance of the plant and in the correction of troubles before they occur.

Poles and cables, complicated switchboards and circuits are being constantly tested, practices are continuously observed and overhauled. From every telephone there must be maintained a ready-to-use talk circuit to the other 900,000 in the state, and out over the lines to the sixteen million in the Bell System.

4,000 of our employees—test men and "trouble shooters"—devote all or a portion of their time to this work, in good weather and bad, without let-up.

There is no great mechanism devoted to general public use that is so complicated and delicately adjusted as a telephone plant. It is designed—and reasonably so—to give reliable service, better today than yesterday. But only through everlasting care and watchfulness.

BEGINNING A SERIES OF MAMMOTH FOUNDER'S WEEK SALES WITH THE MOST ASTOUNDING MERCHANDISING EVENT EVER HELD IN PITTSBURGH

FOUNDER'S DAY

FORTY-SIX years ago—in a small storeroom in Market Street—a man of vision and steadfast purpose commenced a business which was destined to extend its sphere beyond the bounds of time and place, and develop into what is now a mammoth institution.

To commemorate the ideals and aspirations of that man, we have planned another Founder's Day—a greater, a larger and more comprehensive event than that which last year set new records in the merchandising history of Western Pennsylvania.

Time and providence have wrought many changes since the day when the wares of that little store were first displayed to public view. And now—on the threshold of a new era of prosperity—the ideals of a steadfast founder—the courage to buffet storms of changing times—is our inspiration in preparing for the future. The tide has turned—and in the turning—we pledge this effort—Founder's Week—to swell the wave of better business that will soon be sweeping over all the land.

Enormous stocks of quality merchandise from great markets of the country have been assembled for this great event. Scores of manufacturers helped to make the occasion an unprecedented success. Over $1,000,000 worth of new merchandise will be offered at cost—less than cost—a little above cost. A tangible display of faith and confidence—a share in helping on the new prosperity.

Our sole object Monday is to roll up the greatest volume of business ever done by any store in Western Pennsylvania. Preparations have been made to handle thousands of shoppers—the greatest throng that ever visited a Pittsburgh store. The vast concourse of humanity will begin early in the morning and continue throughout the day. You must be there. We want you. Come.

In Pittsburgh Sunday Newspapers, 15 pages of advertising will announce the merchandise offered in this great event

IS YOUR WORK HARD?

Many Charleroi Folks Have Found How to Make Work Easier.

What is so hard as a day's work with an aching back? Or sharp stabs of pain at every sudden twist or turn? There is no peace from that dull ache.

No rest from the soreness, lameness and weakness.

Many folks have found relief through Dean's Pills. They are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Charleroi people recommend Dean's George Sayers, m. r. 134 McKean Ave., says: "Hard work and heavy lifting weakened my kidneys. They acted too frequently and I was obliged to get up several times during the night. This also caused me trouble during the day. Dean's Pills from Carroll's Drug Store put my kidneys in good condition and cured me of the complaint. I have had no kidney trouble since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Dean's Pills—the same that Mr. Sayers had. Foster-McMurray Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Surprised

Many of our patients have remarked that they imagined adjustments were severe and how agreeably surprised that the adjustments are given with very little, if any, discomfort.

Great developments have been made in all lines in the past five years and especially in the method of giving adjustments without discomfort.
